$101,356 Tax Levy Passed By Board Tues.

A $101,356 Tax Levy ordinance was passed unanimously by the Antioch Village Board, along with other important matters which came before the meeting on Tuesday evening. Clarence Shultis, village clerk, will place the levy on file in the office of the county treasurer. It summarizes the taxes to be levied as follows:

General Corporate Fund $50,000; Fire Protection $8,800; Street and Bridge under Special Act $11,000; Bonded Indebtedness $25,000; Social Security Contribution Act $4,000; Civil Defense Fund $1,800; General Liability Insurance Fund $756; Total $101,356.

Two bids for the blacktopping a portion of Anita St. and the tennis court were opened and rejected. The bids included one from the Liberty Asphalt Products, Inc. of Grayslake in the amount of $4,260 for Anita St. and $1,350 for the tennis court, the other from Skokie Valley Asphalt Co., Inc., Antioch in the amount of $5,800 for Anita St. and $2,200 for the tennis court.

The Board authorized payment of $3,380 to Lyons-Ryan for the new village truck.

A motion was passed that 75% of all fees collected by the village for sewer and plumbing inspection, at the rate of $5.00 per hour, will be paid to the inspector and the Board authorized payment of a bill from Walter Delaney in the amount of $461.87.

Trustee David Nissen commended the J. R. Myers Construction Co. on their performance in installing a new sewer line in Anita St. Only one-third of the amount of infiltration allowed by engineering standards was present in the tests taken. The board also voted to pay a bill from the J. R. Myers Construction Co. in the amount of $24,216.67 pending receipt of proper waivers.

Plumbing inspector, Walter Delaney, told the board that fire hydrants were on order for the new Sequoit Terrace Subdivision. They will be installed in order that the mains can be flushed.

Mayor Raymond Toft announced that state approval of the new filling station to be located on the corner of Main and Orchard Sts. was received. The board also gave tentative approval of the plans for the station provided they conform with the specifications of the plumbing and building commissioners. This motion passed with four trustees voting yea and two voting nay.

The board accepted and placed on file a petition requesting installation of storm sewers by special assessment on Anita St. extending from a point opposite the water tower to Green Briar Drive, which is approximately 7,000 feet. Attorney Edward Jacobs informed the board of the procedure to be followed in the handling of special assessments.

An ordinance amending an ordinance on the cutting and destroying of noxious weeds and thistles by the village was passed and approved. It states that failure to reimburse the village for services rendered within 60 days will lead to the village filing a notice of lien in the office of the recorder of deeds.

Trustee Roger Williams and his committee on Public Grounds and Buildings were instructed to meet with the Library committee regarding their request for an exchange of village property for library property. The attorney told the board that appraisals must be received and the property must be advertised for bids before any public property can be offered for sale or exchange.

An annexation petition from Sadie Kravitz for property north of town was tabled until the next board meeting when a more descriptive map of the property will be available.

Mr. Camphausen acted as executive secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce until last May when he resigned because of poor health.

Mr. Camphausen had been associated with the local chamber of commerce for a little over three years and is credited much with bringing the organization up to its present standards. He was gifted in his work and had a great ability in working with the merchants of the area.

He was born in Chicago. Survivors include his wife, Esther, two daughters, Mrs. Ryser (Jill) Ericson, of Lake Villa, Mrs. Kernit (Penny) Radke of Lake Villa; a brother, William Camphausen, of Arlington Heights; four sisters, Mrs. Victor Hansen, pers the opportunity to make their way along the streets to select their choice of the exceptional bargains.

Maxwell Street Days have become popular during the past years because of the tremendous values offered by the local merchants who use this event to free their shelves of spring and summer merchandise at exceptionally low prices.

Members of the Chamber of Commerce committee which is sponsoring the affair are Simon, Stan Toton, George Hahn and Ray Jensen. John Romer is president of the Chamber.

Co. H Off To Training Camp

Train travel for the Lake County Marine Reserve Unit was the order of the day when they left Saturday evening, July 30, from the Armed Forces Reserve Center, McAfee Road, Waukegan, for their annual two-week summer field training at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina.

Five Antioch area men were with the Company scheduled for training camp. They are R. L. Leaf, Rt. 4, Box 80, Antioch; W. M. Moldenhauer, Rt. 4, Box 446G; J. G. Ramp, Rt. 1, Box 638; R. W. Thimmes, 713 Lake St., and B. T. Van Patten, 914 Main St.

The men of Company "H" boarded three special trains at Chicago with the remainder of the 2nd Battalion, 24th Marines, commanded by Lt. Col. Jack M. Frisbie of Waukegan. This is the first time in recent years that a troop movement this large will be conducted by rail.

The battalion presently has over 1100 officers and men.

According to Major Lawrence E. Dickerson, commanding officer of Company "H", the company will be firing all organic infantry weapons under combat-type conditions and will undergo special classes at the new 2nd Marine Division Counter-Guerrilla Warfare School. Veterans from Vietnam will provide the instruction and will illustrate the latest tactics and techniques now being used by the VC.

This registration schedule will be from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday through Friday, beginning August 15 and closing August 31. For the convenience of those who cannot come in during the day the evening session will be on August 25th from 7 to 9 p.m.

Sidewalk Bargains Attract Shoppers For Maxwell Days; Free Show and Auctions

Eighth Annual Maxwell Street Days will bring throngs into the Antioch Shopping District on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of this week when the shoppers will take advantage of the yearly clearance sales being offered by the local merchants.

Feature events will be the free movie at the Antioch Theatre of Thursday and Friday afternoons. This will be sponsored by the committee and will be free of charge with no tickets necessary. The show will be from 2 to 4 p.m.

Lou Simon, chairman of the committee, said Surprise Auctions will be held at various times during the three day event, the times to be announced later. These auctions will prove exceptionally interesting to the conservative buyer. They will be held at Earl Stringer Dodge, and Herman Behm will be the auctioneer.

The unique feature of the Maxwell Street Days is the displaying of merchandise on the sidewalks in the business district offering shop-

FURLOUGHS CUT SHORT

This is a strange war, this war in Viet Nam. Theoretically, of course, we're not at war. This is small comfort to the men who are dying and being wounded.

This is a war in which the general public is feeling little, if any, pain. Oh, they feel it, to a small extent, in higher taxes, and in fear that it may escalate into something frightening. But a booming economy brings them high wages, there's plenty of consumer goods, and the good life goes on and on—unless someone you love is over there fighting.

There are plenty of tales of individual heroism in newspapers and magazines, and everyone knows that the soldier in Viet Nam lives in miserable conditions, in a miserable climate, in addition to the dangers he faces.

But there's a singular lack of consideration for the soldier on his way into battle. The difficulties experienced by soldiers in getting to their destinations during this air line strike must make many young soldiers bitter against the people they're fighting for.

Many are at home for their last furlough before going overseas. For some, this is the last time they'll ever see their family. Every hour is precious.

And these kids must cut short their visit, give up those precious hours, because a union and airline officials each want a financial advantage.

Maybe the strike is justified. Maybe the airlines can't afford to pay more money. But the airlines that are operating could give a priority to soldiers trying to get back to their bases. Or the President could order them to do so. Or the armed services themselves could provide transportation.

The armed services accept no excuses for reporting late for duty. That's all right—strict discipline must be maintained, for the soldier's own protection. But the rest of the nation should be reminded that this is our war, not just the soldier's war; that his problems are our problems, and that everyone here at home owes him a debt. We can at least make a small payment by showing some consideration, and insisting that others do.

The appointment of Republican County Chairman Robert J. Milton to the district staff of Cong. Robert McClory has to enhance the position of Atty. Richard Baird, of Waukegan, in his bid for one of the GOP judicial nominations.

Baird, a veteran precinct committeeman, is a law partner of Cong. McClory and his other partner, Donald Lonchar, is chairman of the Waukegan Township committeemen organization. With Milton in the fold Baird's chances are somewhat better than six, two and even.

The campaign of Atty. Thomas Doran, of Mundelein, is beginning to pick up steam now that Magistrate Eugene T. Daly has withdrawn from the judicial contest.

Doran, a Circuit Court magistrate and former assistant State's Attorney, was holding back because of his close friendship with Daly, but he is now out beating the bushes for committeemen and making some progress.

Doran's strategy will be based primarily on geography pitched to the idea that at least one of the nominations should go to the western part of the county.

Atty. Harry Strouse of Waukegan is basing much of his campaign on the same argument.

Strouse is a member of a law firm which is the successor to the firm which sent Chief Judge Glenn K. Seidenfeld and Circuit Judge Lawrence Dixon to the bench.

The strong partisan flavor of judge elections was never more apparent than in the recent balloting by the Lake County Bar Association.

Magistrate John Hughes, of Waukegan, a Democrat, was found acceptable to all the Democrats, but not to the Republicans with the result that he was not "Recommended" in the overall tally.

The validity of the Bar Association recommendation is certainly open to question when they are based so obviously on strictly political considerations.

Politics and golf scores will be merging in the coming weeks with several outings on the agenda.

The annual outing of the Lake County Bar association will have a more political flavor than usual because of the upcoming judicial conventions and the golfing baristas may have trouble concentrating on their drives and putts.

Milton has scheduled the annual Lake County Republican Central Committee outing for September 14, but at last report no site had been selected.

A newcomer to the political golf outing schedule will be the September tournament being planned to honor W. J. Murphy, of Antioch, who is seeking re-election to the Illinois General Assembly.

Coroner Orville (Pat) Clavey will sponsor an outing August 31 at Brae Loch for the scholarship program he has set up for Lake County youth.

And of course there is always the big "Joe Welch Day" outing in Barrington which annually draws most of the county political wheels as well as a smattering of Cook County politicians.

Cong. Robert McClory will be hosting a reception for Lake County residents attending the Luci Johnson-Pat Nugent wedding Friday

Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClory

In addition to being one of the world's greatest natural phenomena the Grand Canyon has now become a subject of intense controversy in the halls of the United States Congress.

The controversy results from a desire to harness portions of the Colorado River that flow through the Grand Canyon to meet further water needs of California and Arizona, and for providing electric power to these and other states in the Colorado River Basin.

The controversial measure, H.R. 4671, provides for the construction of two new dams on the Colorado River, one above, and one below, the Grand Canyon. The sponsors claim that the dams would leave intact those parts of the Grand Canyon familiar to visitors.

The Marble Canyon dam-site is located 12 miles above Grand Canyon National Park, and would seem to have little effect on the Colorado River as it passes through the Grand Canyon except to modify the extremes of flow which occur at present.

The Bridge Canyon Dam, proposed to be built later, would be constructed 80 miles below the Grand Canyon and would undoubtedly cause the normal level of the Colorado River to rise within the southern part of the Grand Canyon National Park as well as in a large area outside the Park.

Proponents of the bill include the House and Senate members from Arizona, California, Colorado, Nevada, New Mexico, Utah, and Wyoming (the Colorado River Basin states), as well as many other members of the Congress who claim to have studied this subject objectively.

Senator Thomas Kuchel of California contends that this project will provide water needed to accommodate the 50 million residents who will live in California by the year 2000.

Representative Morris Udall of Arizona (brother of Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall) expects the project to bring added water supplies to his state. However, he also cites the multiple purposes of power, irrigation, flood control, recreation and other uses which the Grand Canyon projects would benefit.

Opponents of the pending bill, including hundreds who have communicated with this member, fear that the proposed dams will mean that the beauty of the Grand Canyon, as well as the habitat of various plants and animals now found there, would be adversely affected.

The Sierra Club and many other conservationist groups have joined in the protest against interfering with the completely natural state of the Grand Canyon.

The measure will soon reach the floor of the United States House of Representatives, where it will be necessary for the 435 members to weigh the issue dispassionately and objectively. Constituents from each Congressional District will then have to gauge those votes—understandingly.

night in Washington.

Among the guests will be Waukegan Mayor Robert So-bonjan who sent the young couple an original water color by a famed artist Phil Austin as the gift from the county seat.

Every outstanding success is built on the ability to do about 10 per cent better than good enough.

Something to Think About

Well, Moms and Dads, won't be long now, four weeks to be exact, and the kiddies will be back to school. Isn't that a pleasant thought? There are a few unpleasant things, though, such as, books, school clothes, tuitions, pencils, paper, rulers, crayons, etc., etc., and I understand children's shoes are going up in price two and three dollars. To sum it up—MONEY!

Dear Mrs. Kapell

My new project is going pretty good. I love you.

PM & L News

Well, South Pacific ended its run as a big smash sell-out, and the cast and crew, as well as a lot of those who couldn't get tickets, were sorry to see it close. But all good things must come to an end, and more good things are always in sight. And this is what PM&L promises—good things to come.

Don't let the words on the PM&L theatre's Main Street marquee frighten or discourage you from coming to the next production, Spoon River Anthology. At least don't trust the word, "Anthology." Perhaps in school the word had some unexciting, if not downright boring, connotations. But when you put this word with "Spoon River" and author Edgar Lee Masters, you've packed magic in a phrase, that can only open into one "Enchanted Evening" you may not forget for a long time.

You ask: "Well, what am I going to see? It surely doesn't sound like it's going to be a play." You'll be right! Spoon River is a place. It's a small town, maybe like Antioch, and it has people, maybe like those you would bump into on the streets, or meet in the stores, or come home to at night.

"Yes, but what am I going to see?" you ask again. You'll see four actors get on stage and maybe change your whole view about serious theatre. But you won't see four actors, really. You'll see a whole town of people, and you'll laugh with them. You'll maybe cry with them. You'll feel sorry or be happy; you'll love, hate, admire, pity, but most of all enjoy them. And if you're lucky, you might even recognize some of them.

"But how is this possible? How can only four actors come on stage, and I see an entire town?" This is the magic about Spoon River Anthology, and you probably won't want to miss it.

Lloyd Pedersen will produce and direct this magic, and will join Heather Hunley, Mavourneen Reardon, and Bob Thomley to give you the most different and enjoyable evening of theatre you've had in years. Rehearsals started Monday, and performances will be Friday and Saturday, August 26 and 27. Make a

Art & Hobby Show August 12 & 13

Artists will display their paintings around the outside of the building while hobbyists will set up exhibits of their creations and collections in Pioneer Hall in the basement. Many will be actively engaged in their craft and articles will be for sale.

Don Backys will head up a group of young amateur radio operators who will be contacting persons in other states. Don is a member of Navy MARS.

There will be a Barbecue Wagon on the parking lot to provide a tasty snack, and there will also be an old-fashioned Ice Cream Social. The public is invited.

Co-chairmen for the event are Audra Ikan and Howard Spaulding.

Chairman of GOP Fund-Raising Dinner

Park Livingston, Chicago lawyer and business executive, and youngest president ever to serve on the Board of Trustees of the University of Illinois, has been named chairman of the joint fund-raising dinner to be held Saturday, August 27, for Harris Rowe and Ray Page, Republican candidates for State Treasurer and Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Twenty-five hundred people are expected to attend the dinner which will be held at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago.

calendar note: tickets will be available soon and will be announced in this paper and on the theatre bulletin boards. Keep them posted.

If you're all rested up after your South Pacific cruise, and right now you feel there is no place like home, try an evening with some folks very much like yourself in a town very much like your own. Come see Spoon River Anthology. You won't regret it.

One Out of Every 3000 Who Visited Co. Fair Scheduled to Die This Yr.

Thousands of people visited the Lake County Fair last week and most of them visited the Safety Commission's booth and looked at the wrecked auto on display.

At the present rate of traffic fatalities in Lake County, one out of every 3,000 persons visiting the Fair will die in an auto accident in the next 12 months, and one in 150 will be injured in an auto accident, says the commission.

The remedy—better roads and better drivers and better maintained cars.

What can the individual do? Ask them to vote money for highways and stricter driver licensing; stiffer penalties for violators and safety checks for autos.

Drivers are urged to take the National Safety Council's Defensive Driving Course being offered by the Safety Commission.

The Lake County Safety Commission will furnish details.

Trapinio Triples In Speed Center; Bill Cary, Antioch, Takes Second In Modified

Pete Trapinio of McFarland, Wis., won his third straight feature race Saturday, beating out a crack field of driving talent. Pete took the lead in the sixth lap, but Bill Carey of Antioch in the A-4 Racing Team Modified, came through the field from seventh spot to second at the end.

Finishing behind Carey were Claude Potter, Bill Ansell, Jr., David Lee Webber, Bill Bohn and Milt Curcio. The feature had to be restarted when, on the first lap coming out of the second corner, Ken Monroe spun from his outside front row spot in front of his field of followers. Radger Otto, Jr., Dodd, Milt Curcio, Bill Carey and Bob Dietrich were all involved but on the restart, all but Dietrich were able to continue.

In the first 10 lap heat, George Fisher of Cold Springs went up and over the wheel of Paul Cameron's car in the second corner and when he came down flipped over, landing back on his wheels. The car was OK and so was the driver, but he sat out the first race and came back and won the 15 lap semi-feature.

Bill Ansell and Bill Bohn tangled in the fourth heat but both of them came back

County Rifles Step Up Practice in Preparation For August 13 Opener

Grueling scrimmages have been the order of the day for the Lake County Rifles of the Central States Football League. Coach Gene Cichowski has stepped up the tempo of practice in preparation for the exhibition opener against the Canton Centurions on August 13 at Waukegan Weiss Memorial Field.

About 45 players remain in the Rifles training quarters at Mundelein. The tedious practice sessions in sweltering heat have taken their toll of candidates. Coaches, however, are not dismayed at their departure. Cichowski states that "with 45 good ball players who have come to play, we can win the championship."

The scrimmages have provided the Rifles with some welcome surprises. In particular, the play of Kenny Johnson, a 225-lb. fullback from Evanston, John Heider, a 215 lb. center from Woodstock, and Steve Olsen, a 6' 4" tight end, from the U. of Wisconsin. The Lake County entries in the CSFL also welcomed into camp Bo Abrahamson of Deerfield who recently left the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian League. The 6' 3" 250 lb. linebacker will be a definite asset to the locals.

The Rifles have scheduled a controlled scrimmage at their Mundelein High School training headquarters on Saturday morning at 9:30 a.m. Fans are invited to no admission.

to run in the feature. Bohn lost a front wheel that speedy work repaired. It was Bohn's birthday and the crowd gave him a good sendoff when he got back on the track. Other heats were won by Bob Strunk, Ron Larson, Ron Bergsma and Rodger Otto. Bob Kelly of DeKalb won the sportsman heat and feature and Bill Steen won the spectator car event.

The midseason championship race at the Lake Geneva Speed Center will be held on Saturday night, Aug. 13 and will be for 50 laps. An extra purse and awards will spark the night's running.

Carey also took 2nd in the fourth heat race.

The A-4 car owned by Ray Toft and Herman Sterbenz, and sponsored by the State Bank of Antioch, had fast time both Friday and Saturday nights.

Two No-Hitters Pitched In Little League As Pennant Race Tightens

Antioch Little League, in recent play, featured two no-hitters and the White Division pennant race tightened with the Tigers' loss of two and the Yanks winning one.

Tuesday — the game between the Dodgers and Giants was rained out, and will be re-scheduled on Friday, Aug. 5.

Wednesday — Gary Inman pitched the first no-hitter of the year, but was losing 3-0 to the Cubs, going into the bottom of the sixth inning. Thanks to 4 Sox errors and 2 walks in the top of the third.

With the bottom of the batting order coming up for the Sox it looked like Gary Inman would lose his no-hitter, but Glover, the second baseman, came up with a double. It started a 3-run rally and led the game into extra innings.

Due to Little League rules, Gary had to be lifted and Jeff January came in and set the side down in order. Then in the Sox half of the inning the second baseman Glover again started a rally which gave the Sox the victory. This clinched the Gray Division pennant, putting the Sox in the playoffs.

The winning pitcher was Jeff January, the losing pitcher was Jim Erdman.

Thursday — The Tigers lost their third game of the season, a close one to the Dodgers, 4-3. The Tigers took an early lead with a run in the first inning, but the Dodgers battled back.

The score was tied going into the 6th inning 3-3, but the Dodgers pushed across the winning run on a walk, a stolen base, and a single. The winning pitcher was Larry Palowski and the loser was Mike Ricker.

Friday — Rick Weiss pitched the second no-hitter of the week as the Yankees clobbered the Giants 9-2. The Giants' runs came in the third on 3 errors and a walk.

Merchants Lead In Babe Ruth League Standing

The Adventurers beat the Jaycees 10-6 in 5 innings on July 27. Winning pitcher was B. McCarthy and the losing pitcher was Larry Hoven.

July 28th saw another loss for the Merchants as the Bankers behind the pitching of Ricky Nelson beat them 7-1. The losing pitcher was A. Miller.

The Merchants gained another win on a forfeit by the Jaycees July 29, and on Aug. 1 the game between the Bankers and Jaycees was called off because of rain.

MIKE WOLF TAKES SECOND FEATURE IN ROW AT WILMOT

Mike Wolf of Lake Villa came from 14th starting spot to the lead on the 10th lap of the feature when early leaders Gil Rien of Woodstock and Jim Boehles of Milwaukee tangled in the west turn, at the Kenosha County Speedway at Wilmot, Sunday.

Wolf was pressed in the late stages of the race by Harold Guthe of Kenosha and Ron Justen of Melleny.

On the 20th lap Justen's rear axle snapped, sending him off the track and out of the event. Third was Ralph Sinnenn of Kenosha, fourth, Jim Boehles of Milwaukee, and fifth, Wayne Morgan.

Fast time—Ron Justen, 48.30 mph.

Heat winners: 1—Harold Guthe, Kenosha; 2—Dennis DeMet, Union Grove; 3—Roger Hagl, Lake Villa, and 4—Mike Wolf, Lake Villa.

Family car race: Richard Taylor, Dunes Park.

Semi 15 laps: 1—Carl Tiedke, Melleny; 2—John Ward, Milwaukee, and 3—Larry Bruce, Wonder Lake.

Jack Rabbit Shoot At Melleny Sportsman's Club; Third In Series

Melleny Sportsman's Club will hold the third in their new series of Jack Rabbit shoots, Saturday, August 6, beginning at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, according to Harry Stern, secretary.

Traps will be opened at 1 o'clock for practice shooting for members and non-members, all of whom are invited to participate.

The Lewis scoring system will be in effect, assuring less proficient shooters of equality against top flight marksmen.

The Melleny Sportsman's Club is on the west side of Pistakee Bay, and can be reached from the east by Route 134 to its western terminus and then a right turn. From the west the route is through Johnsonburg across the Fox River with a left turn at Adams Service Station.

HOW THIN SHOULD SPAGHETTI BE?

That depends upon the variety.
But the thinness
of any given variety must be consistent.
Otherwise it won't cook evenly.

Would it bother you if your spaghetti varied more than six one-thousandths of an inch in thickness?

Probably not.

But it would upset the folks who make our Ann Page Spaghetti.
They're such perfectionists.

They keep a micrometer eye on the 32 varieties of pasta products we make.

Perfection and care like this go into the making of all
Ann Page Foods.

They're as good if not better than the famous nationally known brands...we guarantee it.

Are Ann Page Foods a good reason for shopping A&P?
They're one of many.
